RULE XII: CASE MANAGEMENT IN CRIMINAL CASES

- (A) The purpose of this rule is to establish, pursuant to M.C. Sup. R 18, a system for criminal case management which will provide the fair and impartial administration of criminal cases. These rules shall be construed and applied to eliminate unnecessary delay and expense for all parties involved in the court justice system.
- (B) Scheduling of events: The scheduling begins after arraignment. Thereafter, the case is managed in four (4) judicial steps.
- (1) Pre-trials: After arraignment, all 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th degree misdemeanors shall be set for pretrial by the judge or assignment commissioner within twenty-one (21) days. All other misdemeanors shall be set for trial unless the Judge orders a pre-trial in said case. The pretrial shall be conducted in accordance with criminal rule 17.1 and a memorandum of the matters agreed upon should be filed in said case. Any attorney who fails to appear for pretrial, without just cause being shown, may be punished for contempt of court. If the parties cannot resolve the case, then the case should be set for trial to the court unless a jury is demanded. If a jury demand is filed, a second pretrial will be conducted in all cases coming before this court. The second pretrial will be conducted in all cases coming before the court and the case is set for trial. Parties wishing to enter into a plea bargain agreement will indicate at this time their intention to do so. The Clerk of Court shall be notified within 10 days of trial of the existence of any plea bargain agreement.
- (2) Motions: All motions shall be made in writing and accompanied by a written memorandum containing the arguments of counsel. Motions must be filed within the time limits established by the Ohio Rule of Criminal Procedure. All motions shall be set for an oral hearing.
- (3) Trials: Each case not resolved by a pretrial shall be set for trial to the court. If a jury demand is timely filed, then the case will be moved to the trial schedule. All attorneys shall notify the court by 3:00 p.m. seven (7) days prior to the day of their trial of any change in plea or jury costs will be attached to their case.
- (4) Sentencing: Sentencing hearings shall be set within fourteen (14) days from trial if no pre-sentence report is requested. After the court receives the probation report, the court will set the hearing for sentencing within 10 days.

RULE XIII: RULES CONCERNING PROBATION VIOLATIONS

Counsel for defendants who have received a summons or arrest warrant for violating the terms of probation are to notify the Court and the prosecutor no later than 72 hours prior to hearing of whether the defendant desires to contest the Motion of the State of Ohio.

RULE XIV: CASE MANAGEMENT IN CIVIL CASES

- (A) Purpose: The purpose of this is to establish, pursuant to M.C. Sup. R 18, a system for civil case management which will achieve the prompt and fair disposal of civil cases.
- (B) Scheduling of events: The scheduling of a case begins when a civil case is filed. Thereafter, the case is managed in five (5) clerical steps and four (4) judicial steps.
- (C) Clerical Steps:
- (1) Summons shall be served in accordance with the Ohio Rules of Procedure. In the event there is a failure of service, the clerk shall notify counsel by ordinary mail within 14 days of return with lack of service, that if counsel fails to obtain service of summons within four (4) months from the date the cause of action has been filed, then the case will be dismissed without prejudice unless good cause is shown to the contrary.
 - (2) Within 60 days of perfection of service, no answer or responsive pleading is filed, the clerk shall notify counsel of the default and that a failure to submit a motion for default judgement and entry within thirty (30) days shall result in the case being dismissed.
 - (3) After any responsive pleading is filed, the clerk shall immediately forward said pleading and file to the Judge so the matter may be set for a hearing.
 - (4) If no action has been taken on a file for a six (6) month period and the case is not set for trial, then the clerk shall notify the party that the matter will be dismissed within one (1) week unless good cause is shown.
 - (5) When a file has been marked "settlement entry to come" and the entry has not been received, within thirty (30) days, then the clerk shall notify the party that his case will be dismissed unless the entry is received within ten (10) days.
- (D) Judicial Steps:
- (1) Pretrial Hearing: After an answer is filed, in the case, the clerk shall forward the file to the Judge. The Court will then set the case for pretrial within 60 days. Any attorney for a party to the action who fails to attend at a scheduled pretrial conference, without just cause being shown, may be punished as for contempt of this court. Notice of pretrial conference shall be given to all counsel of record by mail or in his/her assigned mail box located in the clerk's office from the assignment commissioners not less than seven (7) days prior to the conference. Any application for continuance of the conference shall be addressed to the Judge to whom the case has been assigned. Counsel attending the pretrial conference must have complete authority to stipulate on items of evidence and must have full settlement authority. The primary purpose of the pretrial conference shall be to achieve an amicable settlement of the controversy in suit and set discovery deadlines. The court shall attempt to narrow legal issues, to reach stipulations as to facts in controversy and determine whether or not trial briefs should be submitted and shall fix a date when they are to be filed. Any Judge presiding at pretrial conference or trial shall have the authority to dismiss the action for want of prosecution on motion of defendant upon failure of plaintiff, and/or his/her counsel to appear in person at any pretrial conference or trial; to order the plaintiff to proceed with the case and to decide and determine all matters ex parte upon failure of the defendant to appear in person or by counsel at any pretrial conference or trial as required; to make such other orders as the Court may deem appropriate under all circumstance. If the case cannot be settled at pretrial, then the case will be set for trial at a time agreeable to all parties.

(2) Motions:

All motions must be writing and accompanied by a written memorandum containing citations or the arguments of counsel. Opposing counsel shall answer in like matter within the fourteen (14) days thereafter. All motions will be considered submitted at the end of said (14) day period unless time is extended by the court. There will be no oral hearing granted in said motions unless the parties request an oral hearing in writing and the court deems it necessary.

(3) Continuances:

No party shall be granted a continuance of trial or a hearing without a written motion from the party or his counsel stating the reason for the continuance. When a continuance is requested for the reason that counsel is scheduled to appear in another case assigned for trial on the same date, in the same or another trial court of this state, the case which was first set for trial shall have priority and shall be tried on the date assigned for trial. The granting of any other request for continuance of a scheduled trial is a matter within the discretion of the trial court.

(4) Judgment Entries:

Counsel for the party in whose favor an order or judgment is rendered shall prepare a journal entry. That entry shall be submitted to opposing counsel within five (5) days of the decision. Opposing counsel shall approve or reject the entry within the next (5) days. Within fourteen (14) days of the decision. The journal entry shall be submitted to the Judge and thereafter the court will prepare the journal entry. Entries of settlement may be filed at any time. The avoidance of trial by settlement shall be allowed and continued by the court entry upon attorneys' representation of settlement but a final settlement entry shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the date set for trial or the case will be dismissed for want of prosecution. All journal entries shall state which party will pay the court costs.

RULE XVII:

INTERPRETER FOR DEAF PARTIES AND WITNESSES

All parties and witnesses who appear before the court, who are deaf, shall be afforded a properly certified and trained interpreter at County expense. Interpreter's fees shall be paid from the Witness Fees category of the local County Court budget. No interpreter's fee shall be taxed as court costs against any deaf party or witness.

- (1) Jury size and unanimity in civil and criminal cases shall conform with existing Ohio law.

(R) Jury Deliberations:

- (1) Jury deliberations should take place under conditions and pursuant to procedures that are designed to ensure impartiality and to enhance rational decisions making and shall conform with existing Ohio law.

- (2) The Judge shall instruct the jury concerning appropriate procedures to be followed during deliberations.
- (3) A jury shall not be required to deliberate after a reasonable hour unless the trial judge determines that an additional day of deliberation would cause an undue hardship upon the jurors and the interest of justice.
- (4) Training should be provided to personnel who escort and assist the jurors during deliberation.

RULE XIX

PROCEDURE FOR IMMOBILIZATION/IMPOUNDMENT

Upon arrest of any person subject to seizure. Impoundment or immobilization, the arresting agency will:

- (A) Vehicle will be seized, plates impounded and held until after the persons initial appearance. Plates should be sent to the court along with all documentation, including registration information and location of the vehicle.
- (B) Upon initial appearance, the Court will either return the vehicle to its owner or order the vehicle held pending disposition.
- (C) If the Court orders the vehicle returned to its owner, the arresting agency will be notified and the vehicle will be released and the plates returned.
- (D) If the Court orders the vehicle held until pretrial, the Court will notify the arresting department and the arresting agency will continue to impound the vehicle pending disposition.
- (E) When the Court issues an immobilization order and the vehicle has been released to the owner, the arresting agency will locate the motor vehicle, immobilize it and notify the BMV on the appropriate form. The BMV must be notified by the department when immobilization is complete so payment can be made to the proper department when made.
- (F) If an immobilization is orders for a vehicle being held pretrial, the Court will send the plates along with the immobilization order to the BMV and the law enforcement agency. The agency upon receipt of the order will follow the same procedure as in "E".
- (G) Any Vehicle being held for immobilization shall not be released until the owner presents proof to the law enforcement agency of the BMV notice that the immobilization period is up and all fees have been paid to the BMV as required. This notification will be sent to the owner shortly after immobilization period is over and the fees have been paid.

- (H) Law enforcement will notify the impound lot, if one is used, upon receiving a copy of the BMV notice of release for the vehicle.
- (I) Any other procedure will require court approval.

RULE XX

COURT SECURITY:

In Compliance with Rule 9 of the Rules of Superintendence, Adams County Court, the following provisions are hereby adopted:

- (1) Security provisions shall be provided by the Office of the Adams County Sheriff. Currently there is one full-time Deputy Sheriff assigned to Courthouse Security. The two days County Court is in session, there's an additional Deputy Sheriff and civilian bailiff in the courtroom from the start of Court to the conclusion of Court sessions. When Court is needed on other days, an Adams County Sheriff's Office Jailer remains with the defendant until the conclusion of Court.
- (2) Prisoners shall be transported within the Court facilities by a Sheriff's Deputy or Jailer. All prisoners shall be handcuffed and, when needed in leg restraints.

(10) Use of cell phones in the Courtroom are prohibited, phones should be turned off prior to entry in the Courtroom.

RULE XXI:

RESTITUTION AND VICTIMS' RIGHTS:

The Court being aware of the enactment of Senate Bill 186 regarding victim's rights and of the provision of law requiring restitution as a part of a sentence upon conviction of certain crimes or as a term of probation, it is the finding of the Court that reasonable procedures for payment of restitution by convicted offenders should be adopted.

The Court further finds that the Probation Office doesn't allow restitution to be paid through its Office and that direct payment to the victim is often not advisable due to the relationship of the parties.

Therefore, it is the ruling of this Court that Local Criminal Rule XXI be and is hereby adopted with regard to payment of restitution in all criminal cases in this Court, whether ordered as part of a sentence imposed upon a defendant or as a term of Probation or as part of a plea agreement between the parties and approved by the Court.

The provisions of said rule are as follows:

- (A) Restitution ordered by the Court will be paid by the offender in a lump sum to the victim unless the Court finds the offender is unable to do so solely due to his/her financial status.
- (B) Periodic payments' of restitution by offenders will be through the Victims' Restitution Account through the Probation Office.
- (C) All restitution monies received will be deposited and disbursed by check.
- (D) The offenders who utilize said payment program will pay a fee of $5.00 for each payment to the Probation Office, funds will be used for the offender to pay expenses of maintaining records of said restitution, postage, stationary, supplies and equipment needed to maintain said account and payment of personnel for the time spent on such duties. Said fee will be deducted from each payment and the balance applied to restitution.
- (E) The Probation Department will disburse restitution according to their policy of payment.
- (F) Any victim can waive the restitution being paid through the Prosecuting Attorney's Office completing a written wavier. If such wavier is filed, all restitution payments will be made directly to the victim.

- (G) The Probation Office is authorized to communicate directly with the offender regarding all restitution matters, including payments, balance, receipt, failure to pay, ect., unless the attorney for the offender notifies the Probation Office in writing that he/she is counsel for the offender. Thereafter, all contact is to be made through the offender's attorney as provided in the Code of Professional Responsibility.
- (H) Offenders making payments will be given receipts by the Probation Office and current balances will be maintained.
- (I) All funds will be handled by the Probation Office in accordance with Ohio Law regarding handling of public funds.
- (J) This rule will apply to all restitution orders entered from the previous order on 03/16/2000.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF RULES

These rules shall take effect after signed by the County Court Judge.

These Court Rules govern all proceedings in actions brought after they take effect and also all further proceedings in action the pending, except to the extent that their application in a particular action pending when these rules take effect, would not be feasible or would work towards injustice, in which event, the former procedures apply.
